INITIAL SCHEDULING CONFERENCE was held today and counsel advised the Court as to the status of discovery proceedings.

Plaintiff is granted 30 days to produce its expert witness report in full compliance with FED. R. OF CIV. PROC. 26. Defendant has 30 days after receipt of plaintiff's report to identify its expert witness and 30 days thereafter to produce its expert witness report in full compliance with FED. R. OF CIV. PROC. 26. All depositions of expert witnesses must be taken within 120 days. Notwithstanding the above deadlines, factual discovery is to end by October 30, 1999.

Cut off for dispositive motions is November 30, 1999.

Pretrial is scheduled for January 20, 2000, at 4:30 p.m.

Plaintiff has 30 days to decide if she will use an economic expert witness and, if she decides to do so, identify the expert to defendant. Thereafter plaintiff will have 30 additional days to produce her economic expert witness's report in full compliance with FED. R. OF CIV. PROC. 26. Defendant will then have 30 days to identify an economic expert witness and 30 days thereafter to produce the expert witness's report in full compliance with FED. R. OF CIV. PROC. 26.
